

Delaware County Historical Society Third Grade Teacher Tote Bags

Have you heard about the Delaware County Historical Society's Teacher Tote Bag Program?

What? Yes! It is a free Teacher Resource that can be borrowed for the school year.

Rutherford B. Hayes and his wife, Lucy, in 1852

Looking for resources to help teach local history?

This recently updated Teacher Tote Bag may be borrowed by educators for up to one academic year. Check it out now and return it in May. Geared to Third Grade Ohio Academic Learning Standards this Ohio Local History Alliance (OLHA) award winning resource was created by current and retired educators who love students and local history.

EACH TOTE BAG INCLUDES:

- |                   |  |                   |
|-------------------|--|-------------------|
| African Americans | Entertainment & Recreation               | Military          |
| Agriculture       | Fire Department                          | Nash House        |
| American Indians  | Flood of 1913                            | People            |
| Children          | Government, Early                        | Post Office       |
| Churches          | Government, County                       | Schools           |
| Coloring Pages    | Government, Municipal(City, Village) | Timeline          |
| Early Settlers    | R. B. Hayes                              | Townships         |
| Economy           | Little Brown Jug                         | Transportation    |
| Economy-Mills     | Maps                                     | Teacher Resources |

26
FOLDERS

5 BOOKS:

- Images of America: Delaware and Delaware County
- Who Came Down That Road by George Elle Lyon (picture book that explains how a road like Stratford Road evolved)
- The 150th Year Commemoration of Delaware County in the Civil War
- The Cabin on Trouble Creek (Historical novel by Jean Van Leeuwen about early settlers in Delaware County, the Perry Boys)
- A Standardbred Star - US Trotting Association

BROCHURES:

A variety of brochures from various organizations including all the program information from the Delaware County Historical Society

2 DVDs:

- ~Making History - One Day at a Time
- ~Fright Night in the Downtown;
~Memories of Downtown Delaware from 1925 to 1975

*Contact us for delivery of your Tote Bag by emailing a request to: schools@delawareohiohistory.org or go to <https://delawareohiohistory.org/curriculum-support/>.